CHIDULY.COM

A fixture in the NYC and Portland DJ scenes for the past decade, Chi Duly knows how to read a room and keep it moving. His original music and remixes have landed on TV, from NFL commercials to HBO's Euphoria and CBS' CSI, with coverage in The Huffington Post, MTV, VICE, and Complex. For weddings, Chris shapes the music for the whole day: ceremony, cocktail hour, dinner, and the dance party. He emcees the evening, builds custom song edits for your big moments, and brings his own professional sound and lighting. You and Chris plan everything together in his shared online music-planning portal, so every song that matters to you is accounted for, and the night feels like yours.
